April 5, 2002 LB 1085

today. I have an intention to talk much on it, but to say as next to nothing as I can. Senator Cunningham, because of the environment in which this is occurring, nothing is going to happen, and you all will begin to be able to take me as a barometer. When you don't see me here, nothing of consequence is going to happen. When you see me here and nothing of consequence is going to happen, it just means that I want to get a break from the productive work that I was doing, and come up here and watch the children in the sandbox. They can't even get together to build a mound of sand, let alone a castle. Now...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...ask yourselves what has been going on today. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Synowiecki, followed by Senators Cunningham, Byars, and Coordsen.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: Thank you, Senator Cudaback, members. Senator Jensen, would you...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Jensen.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: ...respond to a couple of questions?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Would you respond, Senator Jensen?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: The...you got a few handouts here, one I have a question. At the very top it says "Tobacco statistics relevant to Nebraska." It's the two-page handout, Senator.

SENATOR JENSEN: Which one?

SENATOR SYNOWIECKI: The two-page san...two-page handout, "Tobacco statistics relevant to Nebraska" is the first one.

SENATOR JENSEN: I've got so many papers here, Senator, I don't know which one I got.
